Citizen tax guides available from Sen. Jason Allen

Lansing – Sen. Jason Allen, R-Traverse City, announced today that copies of the latest Michigan Taxpayer's Guide are now available throughout northern Michigan and from his office.

The guide, which is a reference for the 2003 tax year, can help citizens better understand and prepare their tax forms.

"Tax laws change so frequently that it is extremely difficult to keep up with them and understand how they affect you," Allen said.

The booklet contains information on homestead property-tax credits, farmland and open space tax relief, the home-heating credit program, filing property taxes, the Michigan income tax, the Single Business Tax and other tax-related subjects. It also has a few of the more commonly used tax forms.

"These guides provide a valuable explanation of many of the terms used in the tax forms and can assist residents with filing their taxes and give resources for assistance," Allen said.

Residents of the 37th Senate District can obtain a tax guide at the following locations:
